Dear Mr. Power,

We hope this letter finds you well. Happy New Year to you and yours. We hope it hasn't been too difficult to get back into the swing of things after the holidays!

Thank you for passing our financials question regarding Pulp Novels onto Mr. Booker. He was able to provide the information requested.

We have a number of questions regarding outsourcing the production of the Bugle to Midland Printing. We originally addressed these questions to Mr. Booker but he informed us they would be better suited for you.

The reconfiguration timeline of the Goss Press we received from Mr. Typesetter indicated the following:

- Re-arrange printing of Bugle – 15 days
- Alter roof – 30 days
- Dismantle Goss – 4 days
- Move Goss – 5 days
- Re-assemble Goss – 12 days
- Test run Goss – 10 days

Would we right in assuming that outsourcing will take place for 76 days(the sum of the above)? If printing is allowed during the "Re-arrange printing of Bugle" phase, the length of the outsourcing period may be 61 days. What would the estimated cost of this outsourcing be?

Thank you, we eagerly await your response.

Yours Sincerely,

Team 5
